

“Find the Elf” Contest

Saturday, December 2nd, 2017 - 12pm to 8pm

The Ramona Chamber of Commerce is hosting the Annual Christmas Tree Lighting. This will be our 25th year celebrating this event. Main Street will come alive with over a thousand Ramona residents out to celebrate the Christmas Season on Saturday, December 2, 2017 from 5 to 8pm. Shops will be open late, the street will be closed to thru traffic, there will be sleigh rides, a classic car displays and of course Santa and the Lighting of the annual Christmas tree in front of the Guy B. Woodward Museum. There will also be a DJ, local entertainment, Carolers and crafters.

As merchants, we stand to gain an incredible amount of exposure and customer traffic. This event has grown significantly each year.

If you would like to host an Elf in your store, please fill out the application and include a payment of $25 made to Ramona Chamber of Commerce and a gift basket or item to be used for prizes. There will be multiple winners this year.

How it works:

1. Hide the Elf (we will supply) somewhere in your place of business.
2. When a customer finds the Elf you stamp or sign next to your name on the “Find the Elf” passport.
3. When the customer has visited all the shops and filled all the stamps, they will drop it off at Unicorn Books and Gift to be entered in the prize drawings. Winners will be notified and do not need to be present to win.
